ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

In the course of writing this book, many Indonesians, some well-known and in positions of authority in the past whilst others just ordinary folks, have helped me along the way. Some have helped me get in touch with people who were not easy to contact, such as the Baduis, the Tenggerese, the Torajans, and the Irianese in Wamena, Sorong and Biak. A word of thanks to Mr Des Alwi for arranging our flight to the island of Banda from Ambon and for taking me and my family on a tour of Banda.

I have also learnt from hundreds of Indonesians from various walks of life in the various regions something about their ways of life, their beliefs, customs and traditions. It is impossible and impracticable for me to mention them all. To each and everyone of them I express my deep appreciation.

I am especially grateful to the late Mas Agung and Drs Harteadji of Idayu, an organisation for research on Indonesian affairs, and Mr Anada Surjono Hamongdarsono of Solo for having kindly arranged to take me on a "spiritual tour" of Central Java which provided me with the opportunity to have a deeper insight into Javanese mysticism.

I want to express especially my deepest appreciation to Associate Professor Leo Suryadinata from the Department of Political Science, National University of Singapore for taking the trouble to read my script, making corrections and giving valuable comments on the book.

I would like also to thank Sharon Siddique for reading the script and giving good suggestions and to Mr Chin Kah Chong of the Pananews Agency and Mr Roberto Z. Coloma, Bureau Chief of Agence France-Presse (AFP) for allowing me to print some of the photographs belonging to them in this book. I am grateful to Mr Dominic Pangborn, President and CEO of Pangborn Design in Detroit for designing the cover of this book.

Last but not least, to my daughter Chuen Ting for her help in making this book possible.
